MEDIA INFORMATION

The 1983 Arizona Wranglers Press guide was prepared to assist the media in covering the Wranglers in their inaugural USFL season. Due to printing deadlines, some of the player biographical sketches could not be included. Changes and additions in club personnel will be updated during the season by the Wranglers publicity office.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR CREDENTIAL REQUEST, CONTACT: Steve Des Georges, George Hill or Bob Hieronymus, Arizona Wranglers, 2200 North Central Avenue, #107, Phoenix, Arizona, 85004. Phone: 602/253-7777.

CREDENTIALS

All requests for media credentials must be made in writing on company letterhead. Whenever possible, please allow time for mailing. Credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at "will call," which is located at the south end zone ticket office.

PRESS BOX: Admittance to the press box will be limited to working press only. Only full accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities:

1. Arizona daily newspapers covering the Wranglers on a regular basis.
2. Sports editor only of other Arizona daily newspapers.
3. Radio and television broadcast crews.
4. Approved special coverage.

PHOTO SIDELINE: Photographers will be issued sideline passes which are not good for admission to the press box. Credentials will be issued only to full-time staff members of the media agencies.

DUE TO THE LARGE NUMBER OF REQUESTS FOR SIDELINE PHOTO CREDENTIALS, NO REQUESTS FROM FREELANCE PHOTOGRAPHERS WILL BE HONORED.

Credentials will not be issued for non-broadcasting radio representatives, weekly newspapers, journalism class students, cutline writers, equipment carriers or other "assistants" for the sideline.

INTERVIEWS AND WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

To arrange a player or coach interview, please contact the Wranglers publicity office (602/253-7777) and a time convenient to both parties will be arranged.

NOTE: Doug Shively, Wranglers' head coach, will conduct a weekly press conference each Tuesday at noon during the regular season. The meetings will be held at the team's training facilities, located at East High School, 515 North 48th Street, Phoenix.

CHET SIMMONS

THE COMMISSIONER

The career experience and qualifications that Chester R. "Chet" Simmons brings to his new position as Commissioner of The United States Football League could be referred to as "the state of the art."

Whereas other leaders of the leagues in the various professional sports come from backgrounds in public relations or law or actual participation in the sport they administer, Simmons, in an era dominated by television, brings to the USFL a career in sports television that has spanned four decades.

His background also includes a lot of "building from the ground up," experience immediately applicable to the tremendous job of launching the USFL's inaugural season.

Just prior to accepting the challenge of guiding the USFL through its infancy, Simmons was president and chief executive officer of Entertainment & Sports Programming Network, Inc. (ESPN), where his ability to build, organize, and manage an all-new entity was a prime factor in ESPN's now being recognized as the most successful organization of its kind.

From 1977 to 1979, Simmons was president of NBC Sports, where he had served as a major sports executive since 1964. During that period his capacity for organizing new enterprises resulted in the network's strong coverage of baseball, basketball, and many other sports, as well as football.

He was also a major contributor to the development of the successful "Sports World" show and highly-instrumental in securing the 1980 Summer Olympics for the network.

Simmons began his television career in 1957 when he joined Sports Programs, Inc., which soon developed into the ABC-TV unit responsible for that network's sports programming.

While with ABC-TV, he was instrumental in the development of the television package when the American Football League made its debut. Thus, the USFL becomes the second professional football league with which Simmons has been directly involved.

He continued to work with the AFL when he moved to NBC, and that association is recognized as having been extremely important to the AFL's survival through its early years and into its eventual merger with the National Football League.

Simmons was born in New York City and raised in Ossining, NY, and Pawtucket, R.I. An alumnus of the University of Alabama, he did his graduate work in radio and television at Boston University. He and his wife, Harriet, have four children and live in Cos Cob, CT.

UNITED STATES FOOTBALL LEAGUE FACTS

- The United States Football League announced its formation on May 11, 1982 at a press conference in New York City. Comprised of 12 franchises, the League's first season is scheduled for March to July of 1983.
- The USFL offers professional football fans the opportunity to watch their favorite game at a unique time of year: spring through early summer. With reduced group ticket plans, the USFL is geared to be affordable sports entertainment for the entire family.
- A market research study conducted by Frank N. Magid Associates reported that the American sports fan wants to see more professional football and overwhelmingly approved of the formation of the USFL. The study found that the new League would maintain a strong following during its spring-summer season.
- The 12 teams are separated into three Divisions: Atlantic - Boston Breakers, New Jersey Generals, Philadelphia Stars, Washington Federals; Central - Birmingham Stallions, Chicago Blitz, Michigan Panthers, Tampa Bay Bandits; and Pacific - Arizona Wranglers, Denver Gold, Los Angeles Express, Oakland Invaders.
- Plans call for the teams to play in the following stadiums: Arizona in Sun Devil Stadium, Birmingham in Legion Field, Boston in Nickerson Field, Chicago in Soldier Field, Denver in Mile High Stadium, Michigan in the Silverdome, Los Angeles in the Coliseum, New Jersey in the Meadowlands, Oakland in the Oakland-Alameda Coliseum, Philadelphia in Veterans Stadium, Tampa Bay in Tampa Bay Stadium and Washington in Robert F. Kennedy Stadium.
- The USFL employs an innovative collegiate draft. A territorial system, the USFL draft is based on a computer study of the colleges attended by professional football's most recent draft choices, and active rosters of colleges and universities over the past 10 years. In order for the draft system to be equitable, each USFL team will be able to select college players from a specific region of the country. The League's first draft will be held on January 4, 1983 in New York City.
- The USFL has entered into firm two-year television arrangements with both ABC Sports and ESPN, giving the League national broadcast and cable network television exposure. The USFL is the first new sports league in history to receive a network television contract for its inaugural season.
- Kickoff is the official publication of the USFL. Available at the stadiums, the publication includes in-depth profiles of the coaches, owners and players, features on the stadiums and League cities, a woman's page and a "fun" page.
- Chester R. "Chet" Simmons was named Commissioner of the USFL on June 14, 1982. He had been President and Chief Executive Officer of ESPN (1979-82) and President of NBC Sports (1979-79).
- Founder of the USFL and originator of the concept is David F. Dixon of New Orleans, who was responsible for bringing professional football to that city and brought about the development of the Louisiana Superdome. Mr. Dixon, together with Lamar Hunt, founded World Championship Tennis.

OWNERSHIP

JIM JOSEPH
Owner/President

Jim Joseph, majority owner and president of the Arizona Wranglers, is the president of the Interland Corporation, a real estate development, management and construction company in San Mateo, California.

Born in Austria, Mr. Joseph graduated from the Wharton School of Finance at the University of Pennsylvania where he received both Bachelor of Arts and Master of Business Administration degrees.

Mr. Joseph started out modestly in real estate developing, constructing homes, apartments and office buildings. He has since developed several office-shopping complexes in the Bay Area. His most recent accomplishment was the $200 million Levi Strauss Plaza in downtown San Francisco.

Originally Mr. Joseph was to operate the United States Football League's Bay Area franchise, but he jumped at the opportunity to set up shop in the Los Angeles football market when it opened up early in 1982.

As the League began to take shape, Mr. Joseph moved his Los Angeles-based entry to the Valley of the Sun when Bill Daniels, a Southern California cable television tycoon, relocated his San Diego franchise in Los Angeles after encountering availability problems with Jack Murphy Stadium.

Mr. Joseph is an active member of his community as he directs the Jewish Home for the Aged in San Francisco and is also a director of the Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco.

He is married to the former Diana Hansen and has three children: Dvora, six; Rachel, four; and Joshua, two.

BRADFORD LIEBMAN
Partner

Brad Liebman joins real estate entrepreneur Jim Joseph, as a partner in ownership of the Phoenix-based Arizona Wranglers franchise.

A third generation land developer from the San Francisco Bay Area, Liebman now divides his time between professional football and the operation of Liebman & Company, a real estate investment firm in San Mateo, California. Active for the last decade in all phases of real estate development, Liebman has directed the financial planning of several projects throughout the western United States, many of which are located in the Phoenix area.

Born in San Francisco, California, he attended San Mateo High School then matriculated to the University of Southern California, where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Finance and Real Estate in 1961. He currently resides in Hillsborough, California with his wife Frieda and their two teenage daughters, Amy, 15 and Ruth, 13.

FRONT OFFICE

HARRY HULMES — Chief Operating Officer:

Versed in just about every phase of a pro football operation, Harry Hulmes joined the Arizona Wranglers last December as chief operating officer following 13 years with the National Football League's New Orleans Saints.

Hulmes, a native of Philadelphia, is a University of Pennsylvania graduate. He joined the Baltimore Orioles as assistant business manager in 1954 and spent two seasons there before accepting the sports information director's post at Bucknell University in 1956.

Moving into professional football in 1958, he was named business manager for the Baltimore Colts. He later served the club as director of public relations, and then as general manager, ending his Baltimore stay in 1969.

Hulmes relocated within the front office of the New Orleans Saints, where he served the team as vice-president for administration, as vice-president of player personnel and for the last three years at the club's director of football operations.

In all, Hulmes has a total of 25 years experience in professional football.

Hulmes, and his wife, Barbara, are the parents of three children.

JOHN CHAFFETZ — Vice President of Administration:

A four-year resident of the Phoenix area, Chaffetz, was the first person hired by majority owner, Jim Joseph, to begin building the Wranglers front office.

A graduate of Penn State, Chaffetz brings to the Wranglers a varied and extensive background in both business and sports.

In 1960, at the age of 24, he became the youngest General Motors Dealer in the United States, when awarded a franchise in San Jose, California. He has also served as the chief operating officer of the Granada Royale Hometels in Phoenix, and president of Zambia Tours, a firm offering photo and game viewing trips to Africa.

On the sports side of the ledger, Chaffetz is the former managing general partner of the Los Angeles Aztecs of the North American Soccer League. Prior to his involvement with professional sports management, he was a television sportscaster for three years in San Jose, California.

Chaffetz and his wife, Peggy, reside in Scottsdale and have two sons.

JIM FOSTER — Assistant General Manager:

Jim Foster joined the Arizona Wranglers last October after three years with the head office of the National Football League, where he served as promotion manager. With the NFL, his responsibilities included creating and developing NFL related promotional activities with various consumer product firms and organizations throughout the United States.

Prior to joining the NFL, Foster was a retail advertising specialist for the Maytag Company from 1972-78. In addition, he was founder, General Manager and a player for the Newton, Iowa Nite Hawks Pro Football Club (1974-78), and Club Director and player for the Quad City Black Hawks Football Club (1978-79). For his accomplishments in the area of football marketing, promotion and management, Pro Football Weekly Magazine named Foster "Minor League Football Executive of the Year" in 1976.

Foster, 32, attended the University of Iowa, majoring in Advertising and Broadcast Journalism.

TOM GEORGE — Director of Ticketing:

Tom George comes to the Wranglers with over a decade of experience in ticket sales. Prior to joining the Wranglers in October, he served as the Director of Ticket Sales at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas. At SMU he established and organized a team concept of ticket sales, directing approximately 80 volunteers. In addition, he was responsible for all group and corporate sponsorships, and helped boost season ticket sales by over 33% in 1982.

George, a graduate of Arizona State, joined the Arizona State ticket office in 1973 as the Assistant Ticket Manager. In 1976 he was promoted to Associate Director of Promotions and Ticket Sales. George left Arizona State to go to Southern Methodist in January 1982.

Tom and his wife, Julie, live in Tempe, Arizona.

BILL BAKER — Director of Player Personnel:

William Crockett Baker, a descendant of the legendary Davey Crockett, serves as the club's Director of Player Personnel. In this capacity with the Wranglers, he is responsible for the evaluation, acquisition and signing of talent.

Baker joined the Wranglers after eight seasons with the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles, where he served as the primary scout for the western region of the United States.

Prior to joining the Eagles organization in 1975, Baker spent two seasons with the CEPO scouting combine, an organization that evaluates football talent for teams in the National Football League.

Bill and his wife, Marjorie, reside in Phoenix.

STEVE DES GEORGES — Director of Communications:

Steve Des Georges joined the Arizona Wranglers in December after six years of service in the public relations department of the Golden Bay Earthquakes of the North American Soccer League. A graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, he received his BA from the School of Journalism in 1974 and later attended graduate school (Mass Communications) at San Jose State University.

Des Georges assumed the position of Director of Public Relations for the Earthquakes prior to the start of the 1979 season, and was the senior member among the ranks of the league's PR people.

A native of the Bay Area, Des Georges was a regular contributor to Sports Unlimited, a local monthly, and also served on the sports staff of the Santa Cruz Morning Star newspaper.

GEORGE HILL — Director of Public Relations:

George Hill joined the Arizona Wranglers in September 1982 after six years working with ABC Sports in the areas of television production, sports research and promotion. His assignments with ABC included the 1976 Summer and 1980 Winter Olympic Games, as well as the college football series each fall since 1977.

His association with Arizona began in 1979, when he served as a public relations specialist for the Phoenix based Fiesta Bowl. He served in that capacity each fall for three years (1979-81).

Hill attended the University of Washington, majoring in Economics. Following school, he joined the Sports Information Staff at Washington, serving as the Assistant Sports Information Director until 1976.

DOUG SHIVELY —
Head Coach

There's a mutual admiration between the Arizona Wranglers and head coach Doug Shively.

On January 10, 1983, the Wranglers signed Shively to a three-year pact, giving the 44-year-old his first ever head coaching job. In return, Shively brings to the Arizona club nine seasons of NFL coaching experience and a commitment to succeed in the Wranglers' initial USFL campaign.

A native of Lexington, KY, Shively served for six seasons as the Atlanta Falcons' linebacking coach prior to accepting the Wranglers' offer. During his stay in Atlanta, the Falcons recorded an overall 46-41 record, including an NFC West divisional title in 1980 and a total of three playoff trips. His tutelage of Falcon linebackers is well-documented, and in 1978 his corps of 'backers established a modern-day record by allowing the opposition a stingy 129 points in 14 regular season matches, an average of 9.2 points per contest. Two seasons later, in 1980, Falcon linebackers Buddy Curry and Al Richardson shared NFL Co-Rookies of the Year honors.

Prior to coaching with the Falcons, Shively worked for three seasons with the New Orleans Saints, two of those campaigns under head coach Hank Stram. It was while with the Saints during these years that Shively began an association with Harry Hulmes, then the club's vice president of administration, an association that continues now with the Wranglers.

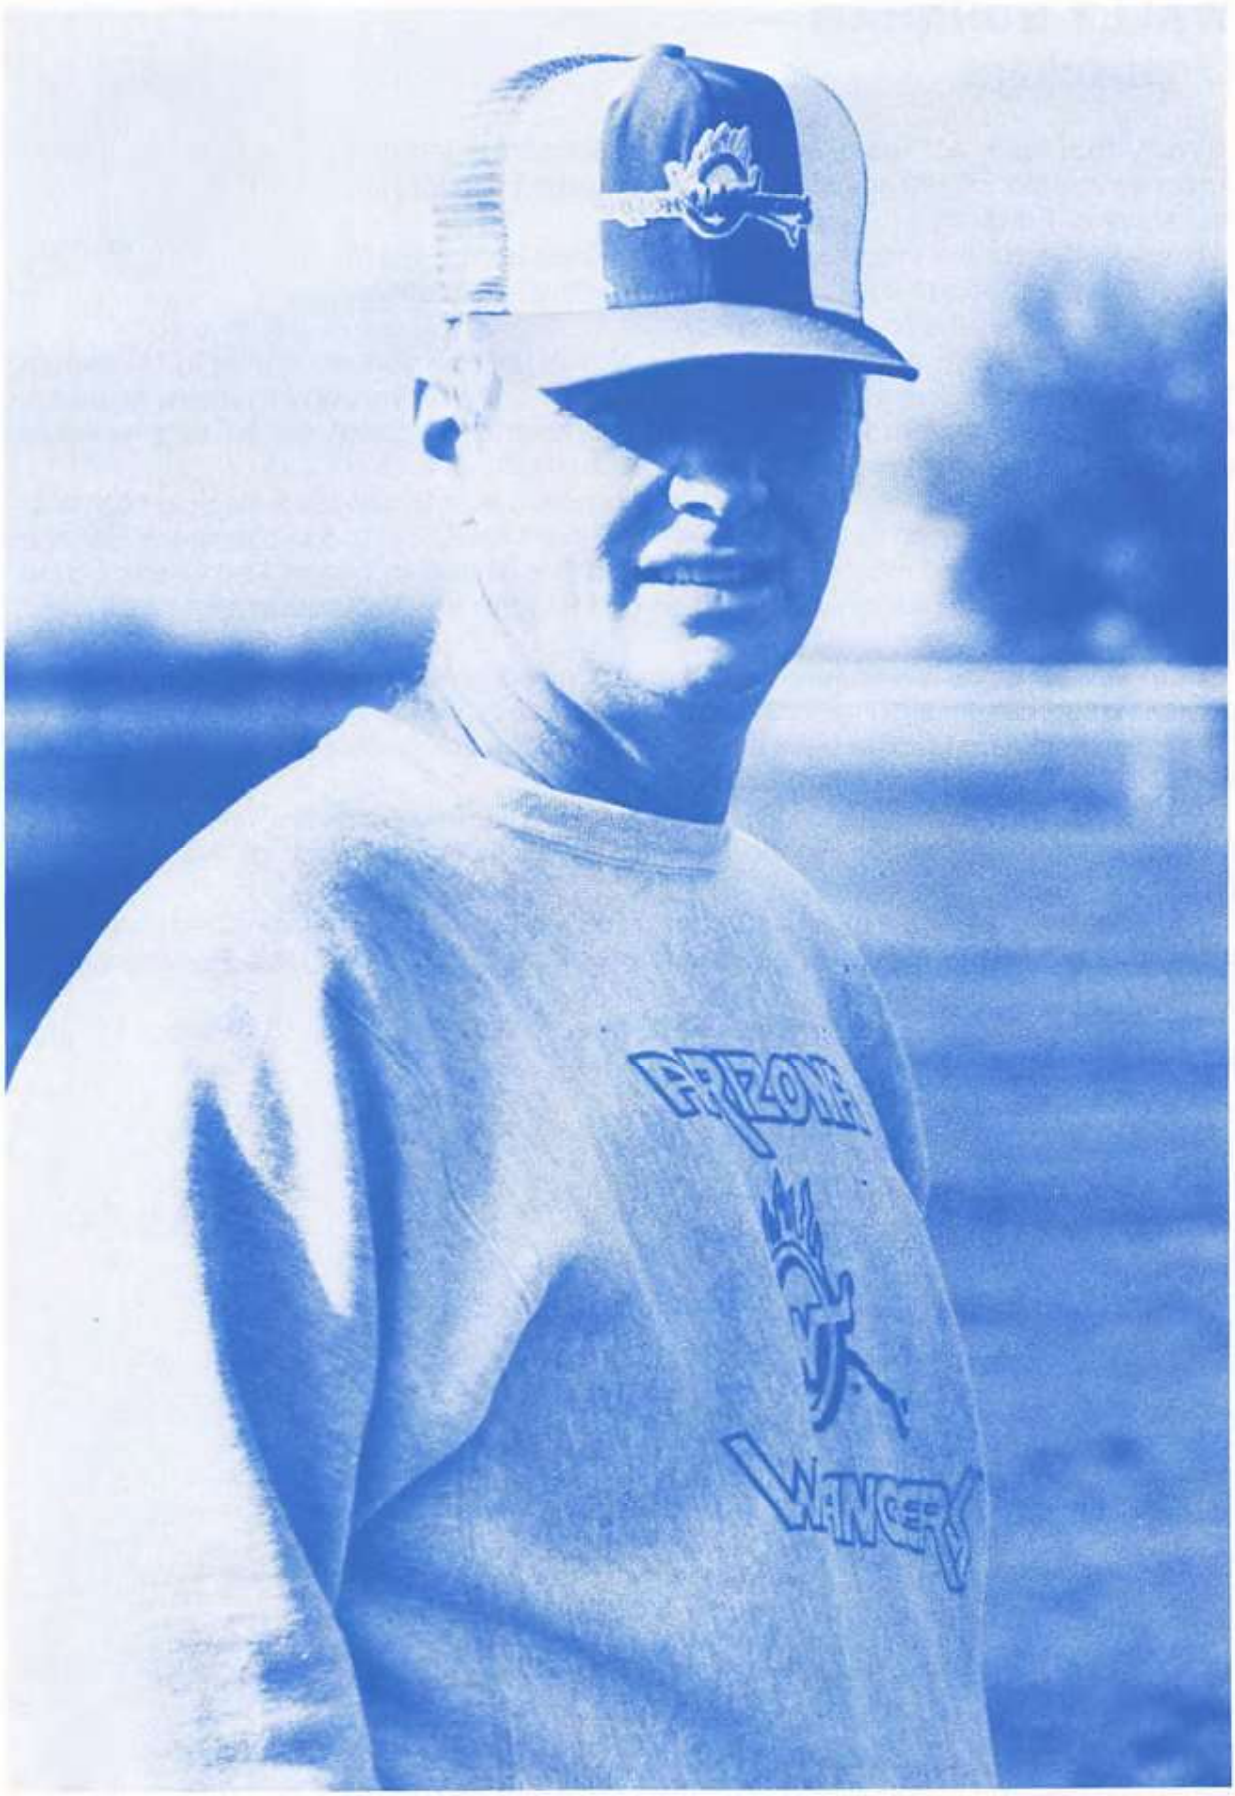
Shively's coaching background extends beyond his seasons as an NFL pro, beginning on the college level in 1961. From 1961 until the conclusion of the 1966 season, Shively was an assistant coach at Virginia Tech.

1967 marked his return to his alma mater as he accepted a coaching position at the University of Kentucky and remained with the Wildcats until 1970 before moving on to Clemson. He served under Clemson field boss Hootie Ingram for two seasons (1971-72). While coaching with the Tigers, Shively became familiar with Clemson JV head coach Larry Beckish and offensive guard Buddy King, now two members of his Wrangler coaching staff.

Shively's final season of college coaching was 1973, a season he spent at North Carolina among the ranks of coach Bill Dooley's assistants.

Shively not only possesses coaching experience from which to draw strategies, he has played the game as well. For three seasons at UK, Shively lettered as an end in football, captaining the 'Cats in his senior campaign in 1959 under head coach Blanton Collier.

The son of former UK athletic director Bernie Shively, the Wranglers' head coach and his wife, Patsy, have three children, Chip, 20, David, 19, and Kelly, 16.



WALLY BURNHAM — Linebackers

Wally Burnham, 41, represents the final selection to join the Arizona Wrangler's 1983 coaching staff, coming aboard during the first week of February.

Responsible for the progress of the team's linebackers, Burnham has a great deal of college coaching experience as a defensive coordinator and a linebacker coach.

A native of Pell City, AL, Burnham got his college coaching career started in 1971 when he joined now-Wranglers assistant Mickey Andrews at the University of Northern Alabama. For six seasons Burnham served as the Lions' offensive line coach, the last time he would be involved in the offensive end of things as a coach.

In 1977 the former collegiate linebacker accepted a post to work as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach at East Tennessee State University. In three seasons with the Bucs, Burnham helped mold a defensive squad that posted an overall 18-14 mark before he departed in 1980 to serve a single season at Memphis State where he taught the Tigers' outside linebackers.

Burnham joins the Wranglers from Lamar University where he held the position as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach for two season (1981-82). During that time the Cardinals fashioned back-to-back 6-5 records, and the personable Alabaman caught the eye of Wranglers' menor Doug Shively.

Prior to his college experience, Burnham was the defensive boss and linebacker coach for five seasons at Decatur High in Decatur, AL, including a season as the state's 4-A champs.

A linebacker at Alabama for Bear Bryant in 1960 and 1961, Burnham finished his college playing career in 1963 and 1964 at Samford University. He was a Little All-American in 1963.

Married, he and his wife, Barbara, have three children, Patrick, 13, Allison, 11, and Shane, 7.

LARRY BECKISH —
Quarterbacks/Receivers Coach

Larry Beckish joined the Arizona Wranglers' coaching staff on January 17, 1983, just one week after the arrival of head coach Doug Shively.

The 40-year-old native of Patterson, NJ, comes to the USFL's Arizona entry after a season at East Carolina University where he served as the Pirates' offensive coordinator under head coach Ed Emory. Under the watchful eye of Beckish, ECU's offensive efforts helped to produce a 7-4 record in 1982, including a 4-0 mark at home where the Pirates outscored their opponents, 110-20.

Prior to his joining the ECU staff, Beckish worked three seasons as Wichita State U's offensive coordinator. His college coaching career began in 1966 when he accepted a position as assistant coach at the University of Tampa. He spent a pair of seasons in Florida before accepting an offer to serve as assistant coach and JV head coach in 1968 at Clemson. His two-season stint with the Tigers was to be the first of two tours of duty with the South Carolina school, as he returned to hold the same responsibilities there from 1972-76.

Sandwiched between his two stays at Clemson was a two-season stop at the University of Miami, FL, where he worked as the assistant coach for the Hurricanes.

An all-star end while high schooling at Central High in Patterson, Beckish was also a starting offensive and defensive end at Wichita State from 1960-63, and captained the Shockers during his senior season when the team captured the Missouri Valley Conference title with a 7-2 mark.

Married, he and his wife, Alice, have two sons, Michael, 19, and Christopher, 14.

RICKEY BUSTLE —
Runningbacks

After three seasons as the receiver coach at East Carolina University in Greenville, NC, Rickey Bustle accepted a call from Doug Shively on January 17, 1983, joining Larry Beckish and Buddy King in completing the Wranglers' offensive coaching staff.

A 29-year-old native of Danville, VA, Bustle is the youngest member of Shively's coaching staff, but has served three different schools on the college level prior to arriving in the Valley of the Sun. His first coaching assignment came in 1977 when he worked as an assistant with the Clemson University runningbacks. His stay with the Tigers lasted two seasons, and he filled a different role in each of those two years. In '78, after the Tigers went to the Gator Bowl the previous season, Bustle moved over to work with the team's secondary, and again the Clemson squad accepted a Gator Bowl invite, this time as Atlantic Coast Conference champs.

Following his service to Clemson, and prior to his joining the ECU staff, Bustle was the defensive coordinator for Gardner-Webb College in Boiling Springs, NC, in 1979.

Bustle attended Summerville High School in Summerville, SC, where he was a wide receiver and quarterback. In college at Clemson, Bustle again showed his versatility, playing those same two positions from 1972-76.

Bustle and his wife, Lynn, have no children.

JAMES "BUDDY" KING — Offensive Line

Buddy King is one of the three offensive coaches on Doug Shively's staff who joined the Wranglers on January 17, 1983.

And, like the rest of the Arizona coaching corps, King boasts experience at Clemson University, although the only member of the Wranglers' staff to enjoy the Tigers' 1981 national football championship season. King served the South Carolina school as its offensive line coach, and was involved in the recruitment of prospective Tigers.

King also has the distinction on the Wranglers' staff of serving one institution for the longest period of time, working at Clemson for seven consecutive seasons (1976-82), and also spending a season there as a graduate assistant in 1973.

A scrappy collegian who was a three-year starter (1971-73) at Clemson as an offensive guard despite a 5-11 frame, King's coaching career began in 1974 at Wofford College in Spartanburg, SC. The 31-year old native of Conway, SC, spent two seasons at Wofford as an assistant coach. Following the '75 campaign, King returned to his alma mater and was aboard for four years of the Tigers' post-season bowl trips: the '77-'78 Gator Bowls, the '79 Peach Bowl and the '81 Orange Bowl.

King, who earned four letters each in high school football, baseball, and wrestling at Mt. Diablo High in Concord, CA, has a wife, Mary, who was the first women's basketball and tennis coach at Clemson.

MIKE BUGAR — Defensive Line

Mike Bugar, like secondary mentor Mickey Andrews, joined the Wranglers on January 25, 1983, from the University of Florida.

A 36-year old native of Youngstown, OH, Bugar totals 13 seasons in a coaching role on the collegiate level, including three campaigns with the Gators in Gainesville. His coaching start, after a high school stint at Amos P. Godby High (Tallahasse) where he guided the football and baseball teams, came in 1970 at Florida State.

His stay at FSU was a one-season graduate assistant tour of duty, shortened by a call from Wofford College in 1971 where he served as the assistant head coach at the Spartanburg, SC, institution through the 1976 season.

After a brief stay as assistant coach at Gardner-Webb College in Boiling Springs, NC, he accepted the nod as assistant defensive coach at Clemson in 1977 and remained at the South Carolina school until he became a Gator in March, 1980.

Bugar, who earned varsity football letters in three seasons at Florida State, has a wife, Linda, and two daughters, Dawn, 14, and Kimberly, 12.

ROBERT EGLEY —
Strength & Conditioning

Robert Egley joins the Arizona Wranglers as the man in charge of strength and conditioning following a year's experience on the strength training staff at Clemson University.

And, while the 26-year-old may be the youngest inclusion on Coach Sively's coaching staff, Egley's brief tenure at Clemson involved him in a program which is generally recognized as the finest of its kind anywhere in the United States. Serving under the direction of one-time Strength Coach of the Year, George Dostal, Egley helped design specific programs for each athlete, taking into account their sport and position.

In addition to football, Egley and the Cats' strength training staff were responsible for the conditioning of the participating athletes in the 16 other varsity sports at Clemson as well.

A native of Clewiston, FL, Egley boasts five years coaching experience in both football and baseball on the high school level in Florida. A graduate of the University of Florida ('79), Egley played football for the Gators as a sophomore, filling linebacker and defensive end roles in Gainesville.

Egley, who earned three letters each in football, baseball and track as a high schooler, is single, and will assist Coach Wally Burnham in a share of the linebacker coaching chores in 1983.

MICKEY ANDREWS —
Defensive Secondary

Mickey Andrews brings a winning background to the Wranglers and to Coach Shively's defensive backfield.

The first defensive coaching selection made by Shively, the 41-year-old native of Daleville, AL, has 17 seasons of coaching experience on the college level under his belt, seven of those as a head coach.

Andrews' collegiate coaching career got underway in 1966 when he accepted an assistant's slot at Eastern Kentucky. After just a season at EKU, Andrews made the move to Livingston University in Alabama, and served the Tigers as an assistant for three campaigns before assuming the head coaching position in 1970. After a 4-5 season in his first attempt, Andrews got the Tigers untracked and wrapped up the 1971 season with an 11-1 mark and the NAIA national championship. After an 8-1-2 season in 1972 that saw the Tigers fight through to the NAIA title semi-finals, Andrews was courted by the University of North Alabama, and he accepted the head coaching position in Florence in time for the 1973 season.

A three-year letterman in baseball, football and basketball at Carroll High School, Andrews coached the North Alabama Lions for three seasons until accepting an invite to guide the defensive secondary at Clemson in 1977. He completed his college head coaching career with a 41-28-3 showing.

Following four seasons at Clemson, Andrews joined the coaching staff at the University of Florida, taking charge of the secondary and working two seasons in Gainsville with the Gators prior to his joining the Wranglers.

Andrews established himself as a winner while in high school, and the trend continued into college at the University of Alabama. He lettered in baseball and football for the Tide in 1963 and 1964. Under Coach Bear Bryant, Andrews played in the 1963 and 1965 Orange Bowl and 1964 Sugar Bowl games. In 1964, the same season he played on Bryant's national championship team, Andrews won the school's Hugo Friedman Award as the Tide's most versatile athlete.

Andrews and his wife, Shirley, have two children, Ronnie, 6, and Shannon, 3.

HAL WYATT — Head Athletic Trainer

A Certified Athletic Trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), Hal Wyatt ended a six-year relationship with the San Francisco 49ers of the NFL in January to accept a position of head athletic trainer with the Wranglers.

Wyatt's further athletic training experience dates back to his 1974 graduation from North Texas State where he earned his B.S. in Physical Education/Biology. That same year the San Angelo, TX, native founded the Sports Medicine Clinic of North Texas, and he also served the Clinic as director and head trainer.

Four years of work at the Clinic, including a stint as head trainer in 1976 for the North American Soccer League's Dallas Tornado, came to a halt late in 1977 when Wyatt received a call from the 49ers and accepted their offer to join the training staff as the assistant athletic trainer. Wyatt served in that capacity for three seasons in the Bay Area before the Niners rewarded him with a promotion to Co-Head Athletic Trainer. Wyatt was aboard for the San Francisco team's 1981 Cindarella ride to Super Bowl XVI.

In addition to his certification and NATA status, Wyatt also carries a license to practice athletic training granted by the Texas State Board.

Wyatt, 31, and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Lucas, 3, and Benjamin, 1.

WAYNE REED — Equipment Manager

Wayne Reed joined the Wranglers' as Equipment Manager on January 15, 1983, and completed the task of coordinating, purchasing and distribution of the team's equipment in the two weeks before training camp opened in Casa Grande.

A native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Reed attended Tuscaloosa High School. Following graduation in 1978, he remained in town to attend the University of Alabama, where he served as the head football manager for Bear Bryants Crimson Tide his senior year. During his four-year tenure at Alabama (1978-81), Wayne shared in the glory of two national football championships, and was on the sideline when Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant won his 315th college coaching victory, making him the winningest coach ever in college football.

Prior to joining the Wranglers, Wayne served as the assistant equipment manager at the University of Missouri, a position he held from August 1982 until January 1983. He had just resigned at Missouri to take the assistant equipment managers position with the Birmingham Stallions of the USFL when Coach Shively beckoned.

Reed, a leap-year baby, was born on February 29, 1960.

Assisting him with the vast chore of maintaining the equipment are: Joe Henley and Tracy Solem.

TRAINING THE WRANGLERS

Prior to the start of their 1982 USFL season, the Arizona Wranglers training camp was located at the Francisco Grande Resort Hotel & Inn, just outside the town of Casa Grande. Under the watchful eye of head coach Doug Shively and his staff of assistants, as many as 107 players fought for room on the club's roster, going through two-a-day training routines.

Three times before the 1983 season got underway the Wranglers held scrimmages with USFL foes, matching wits with the Denver Gold, Oakland Invaders and Los Angeles Express on successive weekends.

The Wranglers broke their first-ever USFL preseason training camp on February 27, heading for their home base in Phoenix. During the regular season, the Wranglers training camp will be housed at East High School, located at 515 North 48th Street in Phoenix. The Wranglers' coaching staff, trainers and equipment managers will also be based at the school.

That the Valley of the Sun was the place to be during the USFL's preseason was witnessed by the fact three other league teams came to Arizona to get in training time. Below is a look at who trained where in the Phoenix area prior to the start of the 1983 season:

TRAINING CAMPS

USFL preseason training camps opened Monday, January 31, with the League's 12 clubs reporting to facilities in Arizona, California and Florida. Although no preseason games were scheduled, several scrimmages took place.

Training camp cutdown dates were set for February 7 to 70 players, February 20 to 58, February 27 to 45 and March 30 to a 40-man active roster and a 10-man developmental squad.

The teams closed down their respective camps the week prior to the USFL's regular season opener on Sunday, March 6. The opening weekend's games are Chicago at Washington, Boston at Tampa Bay, New Jersey at Los Angeles, Oakland at Arizona, Philadelphia at Denver and Michigan at Birmingham.

THE DRAFT

NOTES ON INAUGURAL USFL PLAYER DRAFT — 1983

The inaugural player selection meeting of the United States Football League, held in New York, Jan. 4-5, 1983, produced the largest number of player selections ever by a professional football league at a single meeting. With each USFL team selecting 50 players, 26 by territorial selections and 24 through round-by-round choosing, the overall total was 600. Previous high number of players chosen during a single selection meeting was 408, when the eight-team American Football League, with each team selecting 51, met in 1960.

In the round-by-round portion of the USFL's first player selection meeting, the University of Washington was represented by the largest number of players chosen, 13. Next high was UCLA, with 12, followed by Louisiana State, with nine. Pittsburgh and Ohio State had eight each.

* * * * *

Players from 114 different schools were selected during the USFL's inaugural player selections in round-by-round choosing.

* * * * *

The two-day selection meeting by the USFL took 15 hours and 41 minutes of actual round-by-round total time, with the longest round being the second, which took one hour and 36 minutes, and the shortest the 20th and 23rd, which each took 26 minutes.

* * * * *

In the USFL territorial selections, through which each club was allowed to choose 26 players from five assigned schools, the school with the single-highest number was Southern California. The LA Express chose 19 players from the 1982 Trojan roster. Next high were Penn State, with 14 named by the Philadelphia Stars, and Clemson, with 14 chosen by the Washington Federals.

* * * * *

The LA Express had both the first and last choices in the round-by-round portion of the inaugural USFL draft. In the first round they took Pittsburgh All-American quarterback Dan Marino. In the final round they took tackle Don Elliott. Elliott was the only player selected from the University of New Mexico, which also happens to be the alma mater of Express president Alan Harmon.

* * * * *

The round-by-round selecting by USFL teams produced 159 offensive players (18 QBs, 39 RBs, 9 TEs, 29 WRs, 64 OL) and 124 defensive players (45 DL, 36 LBs, 43 DBs), along with three punters and two placekickers. From the territorial selections came 161 offensive choices. 132 on defense and nine kickers and punters.

* * * * *

Combining the territorial and round-by-round selections made by the 12 USFL teams in their recent selection meeting, the Pac 10 was the collegiate conference from which the most choices were made. A total of 84 players were selected from Pac 10 schools. Other conference representations: SEC 67; Big 10 62; ACC 43; WAC 33; SWC 26.

USFL ANNOUNCES RULES CHANGES

The USFL has adopted several rule modifications for its inaugural season in the interest of player safety and the betterment of the game, Commissioner Chet Simmons announced.

"Our coaches feel that these rules are necessary and long overdue," said Simmons. "It is our intention to provide extra measures for safety to our players as well as to offer the fans a more exciting brand of football."

Rules affected include: pass interference, blocking below the waist, the two-point conversion, use of a kicking tee and stopping the clock.

In order to make the penalties for defensive and offensive pass interference more equitable, the USFL has amended the rules to read: a) offensive pass interference, including illegal advance by ineligible players beyond the line of scrimmage, will result in a loss of down and 10 yards from the previous spot; b) defensive pass interference will result in a loss of 15 yards from the previous spot and an automatic first down for the offense. If the foul is intentional or deliberate, the result will be a first down for the offense at the spot of the foul.

On all kicks, the rules has been changed to prohibit all players from blocking below the waist.

"Prevention of blocks below the waist will be an asset in the avoidance of serious injury to a player's leg and/or knee," according to Cal Lepore, USFL supervisor of officials.

Teams may elect to try for a two-point conversion by a run or pass following a touchdown, thus creating extra interest and suspense for fans and providing strategic choices for coaches throughout the game.

Also, teams will have the option of using a flat one-inch kicking tee on all field goal attempts and point after tries.

The clock will be stopped in the last two minutes of each half when the offense registers a first down. After the ball has been spotted and the chains reset, the clock will start on the referee's ready signal.

These changes were recommended by the USFL Competition Committee, which consists of Chairman Chuck Fairbanks, president and head coach of the New Jersey Generals; George Allen, chairman of the board and head coach of the Chicago Blitz; John Bassett, managing general partner of the Tampa Bay Bandits; Peter Hadhazy, USFL director of operations and liaison for the League office; Red Miller, general manager and head coach of the Denver Gold; John Ralston, general manager and head coach of the Oakland Invaders; and Randy Vataha, general partner/treasurer and secretary of the Boston Breakers.

A HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES FOOTBALL LEAGUE
1982

May 11	Formation of the United States Football League is announced at a press conference in New York City.
May 26	USFL and ABC Sports enter into two-year network television agreement. Agreement calls for game-of-the-week on Sunday afternoons, a prime-time showing, plus coverage of divisional playoffs and the championship game. Total package calls for 21 telecasts of USFL action.
June 2	Chuck Fairbanks, former Oklahoma, New England Patriots and Colorado head coach, is named president and head coach of the New Jersey Generals. Fairbanks becomes USFL's first head coach. Also joining the Generals is vice-president and general manager Jim Valek.
June 14	Chet Simmons, former president and CEO of ESPN-TV, and a one-time president of NBC Sports, is announced as Commissioner of the USFL at a press conference in Los Angeles.
June 16	Robert "Red" Miller is announced as general manager and head coach of the Denver Gold.
June 17	USFL and ESPN-TV enter into two-year national cable network agreement. USFL will telecast two prime-time games each week of the season.
June 21	George Allen, one of pro football's all-time winningest coaches, is announced as chairman of the board and head coach of the Chicago Blitz.
June 30	John Ralston, former head coach of the Denver Broncos, is announced as general manager and head coach of the Oakland Invaders.
July 12	USFL announces adoption of the old two-point TD conversion rule made popular years ago by the old American Football League.
July 20	Dick Coury, former Philadelphia Eagles' assistant coach, is announced as general manager and head coach of the Boston Breakers.
July 21	James Gould, one of the founding members of the USFL, is announced as president of the Washington Federals.
July 22	New Jersey Generals announce signing of 20-year lease with the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority to play their home games at Giants Stadium at the Meadowlands.
July 29	Commissioner Simmons announces plans for territorial drafting system for college athletes who will be seniors in the 1982-83 school year. USFL also announces reserve negotiation list for each team. Standard player contract unveiled, and use of kicking tee for field goals and conversions approved.
August 5	UCLA tight end Tim Wrightman becomes the first player to sign with a USFL team, inking contract with Chicago Blitz.
August 11	Oakland Invaders announce plans to play home games at Oakland Coliseum, home of the NFL's old Oakland Raiders.

August 12	First USFL player trade is completed between Chicago and Boston, QB Greg Landry's rights going to the Blitz in return for future considerations.
August 24	Ray Jauch, head coach of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers, accepts nod as Washington Federals' field boss. He will join the D.C. team at the completion of the CFL season.
August 31	At owners' meeting in Washington, D.C., Commissioner Simmons announces USFL divisional alignment and playoff format. Three divisions of four teams each will make up the league alignment. The three divisional winners and one wild card team will qualify for the post-season playoffs. USFL draft date of January 4-5 is set, and regular season schedule of 18 games for each team is announced.
September 2	Hugh Campbell, head coach of the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos, accepts coaching nod with L.A. Express. Campbell will join the Southern California team at the conclusion of the CFL season. Rollie Dotsch, Pittsburgh Steeler's assistant coach, is named as field boss of the Birmingham Stallions.
September 7	Los Angeles Express announce signing of lease agreement to play home games at the L.A. Coliseum. Washington Federals announce lease agreement with RFK Stadium to play home games at 55,045-seat facility.
September 21	Commissioner Simmons announces appointment of Peter Hadhazy, former NFL administrative coordinator, as director of football operations.
October 4	Birmingham reaches lease agreement to play home games at Legion Field.
October 26	Chicago Blitz receives approval from Chicago Park District to play home games at Soldier Field.
November 15	Philadelphia Stars receive approval from Philadelphia City Council to play home games at Veterans Stadium.
November 19	Michigan Panthers name Jim Stanley, former Atlanta Falcons' aide, head coach. Team also receives permission to play home games at Silverdome in nearby Pontiac.
November 22	Steve Spurrier, a former Heisman Trophy winner and more recently offensive coordinator at Duke University, is selected head coach of the Tampa Bay Bandits.
December 8	USFL unveils first league schedule.
December 9	USFL and ABC Radio Network jointly announce that ABC will do 39 national broadcasts of USFL games, including two playoff games and title game. ABC agrees to cover two games per week during the regular season.
December 9	Harry Hulmes appointed chief operating officer of the Arizona Wranglers by club owner and president Jim Joseph.
December 17	Change in pass interference rule is announced for USFL games by competition committee. Incidental pass interference results in 15-yard penalty and automatic first down for offensive team, instead of ball being spotted at point of foul. For flagrant or intentional interference, ball is marked at spot of foul. Selection order for January 4-5 player allocation is determined by lot during meetings in Tampa Bay. Arizona Wranglers will choose in second slot.

1983

January 4	USFL holds its first collegiate draft in New York. The 12 teams select a total of 312 players in the territorial allocation, then an additional 288 in round-by-round choices.
January 7	Chicago Blitz announce signing of runningback Tim Spencer, a former Ohio State star, to a four-year pact, making the first round selection the first drafted player to sign a contract.
January 10	Arizona Wranglers announce former Atlanta Falcons linebacker coach Doug Shively as head coach.
January 13	Philadelphia Stars name Jim Mora, former New England Patriots' defensive coordinator, as head coach.
February 23	Georgia RB Herschel Walker signs three-year deal with New Jersey's Generals. Multi-million dollar pact hailed as most lucrative in professional football history.
March 6	The USFL's first regular season gets underway.

WRANGLER HISTORY

Aug. 5, 1982	Owners Jim Joseph and Brad Liebman move their USFL franchise to Phoenix from Los Angeles after the San Diego team moved into the Los Angeles area.
Aug. 31, 1982	After a two-day owners meeting, USFL Commissioner Chet Simmons announced that the league would divide into three four-team divisions. Arizona's entry is placed in the Pacific Division, along with L.A., Denver, and Oakland. The Atlantic Division will be comprised of New Jersey, Philadelphia, Washington, and Boston. The Central will include Chicago, Michigan, Tampa Bay, and Birmingham.
Sept. 8, 1982	The "Arizona franchise" is now the ARIZONA WRANGLERS. Adrienne Hogate's name is drawn from the 360 entrants who offered the winning title in the Name-The-Team-Contest.
Oct. 25, 1982	Wrangler majority owner Jim Joseph selects a flaming branding iron and the colors of the Arizona state flag as the team's signature. The logo and uniform were both designed by Phoenix creative designer Robert Brookson.
Nov. 9, 1982	The Arizona State Board of Regents agree to USFL stadium use, voting six to one to approve the Wranglers' leasing of Sun Devil Stadium.
Dec. 14, 1982	Harry Hulmes, the Director of Football Operations for the New Orleans Saints, is named the Chief Operating Officer of the Wranglers.
Jan. 4, 1983	The first day of the inaugural USFL draft takes place in New York City. The Wranglers shuffle the deck and deal their second pick in the first round to Chicago for the negotiating rights to Calvin Murray, formerly of the Philadelphia Eagles and Ohio State, and their sixth selection in the same round. The Blitz pick Ohio State's Tim Spencer and the Wranglers nab runningback Eric Dickerson of Southern Methodist University.
Jan. 10, 1983	The Wranglers select Atlanta's Doug Shively as the team's first head coach. The naming of the Falcon aide ended a 158-day search.
Jan. 31, 1983	Wranglers officially open training camp at the Francisco Grande Resort Hotel and Inn west of Casa Grande, Arizona, after a five-day minicamp for quarterbacks, receivers, runningbacks, linebackers, and defensive backs the previous week.
March 6, 1983	Wranglers kickoff their USFL debut at Sun Devil Stadium against the Oakland Invaders.

USFL UNVEILS 108-GAME REGULAR-SEASON SCHEDULE

The United States Football League's 108-game regular-season schedule that begins with games on Sunday, March 6 and concludes Sunday, July 3 was announced on Dec. 8, 1982. Each of the 12 USFL teams will play an 18-game schedule divided into nine home and nine road contests.

Both ABC Television and the Entertainment and Sports Programming Network will offer a full televised schedule of USFL games. ABC will televise a game of the week live on Sunday afternoons with one prime time showing on June 17. ABC also will carry the league's divisional playoffs and championship game. ESPN's coverage plans generally call for a game every Saturday and Monday evening during the regular season. The USFL is the first sports league in history to have broadcast and cable network television contracts in force prior to its regular season.

The USFL's 12 franchises comprise three divisions: Atlantic (Boston Breakers, New Jersey Generals, Philadelphia Stars, Washington Federals); Central (Birmingham Stallions, Chicago Blitz, Michigan Panthers, Tampa Bay Bandits); and Pacific (Arizona Wranglers, Denver Gold, Los Angeles Express, Oakland Invaders).

The breakdown of the 18-game schedule calls for each team to play a home-and-home series with each of the other teams in its division. Each team in a divison also plays a home-and-home with two other teams from each of the other two divisions. Finally, each team plays one game with each of the other clubs it does not meet in home-and-home situations.

Sixty-four league games will be played on Sundays. Saturday games number 20, as do the number of Monday night contests. Four games are slated for Friday evening.

The first league games in USFL history unfold Sunday afternoon, March 6, when Boston visits Tampa Bay and Chicago travels to Washington. Both games get under way at 1:30 p.m.

Other openers include New Jersey at Los Angeles, Oakland at Arizona and Philadelphia at Denver, all Sunday afternoon. Michigan travels to Birmingham for a Monday night, March 7 meeting at 7:00 p.m.

The three division winners, plus the wild card team with the best won-lost record, advance to the league divisional playoffs on July 9-10 with the championship game on July 17.

USFL games will be played under the standard rules of professional football with two major exceptions and some modifications. The league has reinstituted the use of the 2-point conversion following a touchdown. This rule was popularized by the American Football League during the 1960's. The other rule change is that placekickers will be allowed the optional use of a 1-inch kicking tee on placement attempts.

SIDELINES

THE ARIZONA WRANGLER CHEERLEADERS

No pro football game would be complete without the entertainment provided by cheerleaders along the sidelines, and the Arizona Wranglers cheerleaders should prove to be the most entertaining in the League. Not only are they attractive and possess great dancing abilities, but their cheers will include several gymnastic routines, something that is unique to pro football sidelines.

The first-ever 1983 edition of the Arizona Wranglers cheerleaders was selected by a panel of 10 judges on Sunday, January 9, at the Hotel Westcourt in Phoenix.

Sixty-eight of the original 237 hopefuls that participated in the December 18 preliminary tryouts competed for the final 30 spots.

Of the 30 selected, 24 will be on the active roster, with the remaining six serving as alternates. Eighteen women and six men make up the 24 cheerleaders who will lead the cheers at the Wranglers' home games in Sun Devil Stadium.

The female cheerleaders are: Kelly Langford, Linda Finocchiaro, Theresa Rivera, Marnie Respicio, Lauren Baugh, Susan Grapshi, Dianne Lemme, Rose Cannon, Diana Kaye, Julie Landwehr, Lori Waddell, Nancy Meek, Valerie Mohl, Karen Berry, Pamela Godward, Patti Killian, Marianne Bazan and Joyce Beal. The three female alternates are Laura Benfield, Dee Dee Reed and Jan Dettling.

The male cheerleaders are: Alexander Merrick, Randy Mastin, John Dallas, Lawrence Steineker, John Kucera and Tim Roberts. The three male alternates are Paul Palmer, Joe Bates and Ken Casey.

The participants were scored on a scale of zero to five in the areas of appearance, enthusiasm, coordination, style, and poise. Scores were then totaled and averaged to determine the 30 finalists.

The cheerleaders were selected by a group of 10 judges including: John Moynihan, KOY Radio; Lynne Holt, The Phoenix Gazette; Mayor Margaret Hance of Phoenix; Bill Denny, KPNX-TV; Bob Crawford, The Phoenix Gazette; Laura Perrin, community volunteer; Mary Weingart, Communication and Corporate Services; Mayor Harry Mitchell of Tempe; along with Cuthbert and the cheerleaders' choreographer, Pam Bidwell.

Bidwell, a business representative for Mountain Bell, will instruct the group on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday evenings at Lidy's European Aerobic Studio at one of two locations in Phoenix.

The cheerleaders will be making numerous appearances throughout the state to promote professional football in Arizona. The Arizona Wrangler cheerleaders are available for public appearances statewide. For further information, call coordinator Patti Cuthbert at the Wrangler administrative offices, (602) 253-7777.

CHEERLEADERS

THE ARIZONA WRANGLERS' MARCHING ALL-STARS

The first and only marching band of it's kind in professional football, the Arizona Wranglers' Marching All-Stars are 157 high school honor musicians from the state of Arizona.

Each member of the band was hand selected by the Arizona Band and Orchestra Directors Association (ABODA) which develops, choreographs and directs the band for each Wrangler home game. The band's three directors are Mike Miller, Director of Instrumental Music at Mesa High School (and also president of ABODA), Brian Court, Director of Instrumental Music at Brophy Prep, and Dan Lindsey, Director of Instrumental Music at Glendale High School.

In cooperation with ABODA, a $15,000 scholarship fund has been established for the members of the band so that they might further their instrumental music careers through additional educational opportunities. The directors of ABODA will administer the scholarship fund as part of their responsibilities in coordinating the operation of the band.

"GRINGO" WRANGLERS' "BAND IN THE STANDS"

"Gringo" brings an added dimension of fun and spirit to every Wrangler home game as the Wranglers' official "Band in the Stands." Before the game, you will find the band firing up tailgating fans in the parking lots around Sun Devil Stadium. During the game, "Gringo" brings their fresh brassy sound to life whenever there is a break in the action on the field.

Since 1970 the band "Gringo" has been entertaining enthusiastic crowds from coast to coast while at the same time collecting a number of Entertainment Group awards for their collective talents. All seven members of the band reside in the Phoenix area when they are not touring.

WRANGLERS' BROADCASTS ON KOY-RADIO

The Arizona Wranglers will broadcast all 18 regular season games, home and away, this season on KOY-Radio (550 AM). All games will be broadcast live.

Handling the play-by-play as the "Voice of the Wranglers" will be well-known mike man Ray Scott. Scott, a resident of Rio Verde in Arizona, has an arm's-length list of credentials as a play-by-play expert, including desdriptive chores with the Green Bay Packers, Minnesota Vikings, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Kansas City Chiefs. Hc also handled the Game of the Week for CBS-TV for six years. Most recently he has been announcing Big 8 basketball, and, beginning in the fall, he'll be the play-by-play man on TV for UCLA football and basketball.

Joining Scott in the KOY-Radio broadcast booth at Sun Devil Stadium will be color commentator John Moynihan. Moynihan serves as the host of a nightly sports talk show on KOY-Radio.

KOY-Radio's coverage of the Arizona Wranglers' first USFL season will kick off on Sunday, March 6, when the Wranglers begin the '83 campaign with a hosting of the Oakland Invaders.

Members of the Wranglers' Radio Network are: KNST (940 AM) in Tucson, KCLS (600 AM) in Flagstaff and KNOT (98.3 FM) in Prescott, KATO (1230 AM) in Safford, KAAA (1230 AM) in Kingman, KQEZ (103.9 FM) in Coolidge, and KGAK (1330 AM) in Gallup, NM.

WRANGLERS' TELECASTS ON KPNX-TV

And, the Wranglers have provided their Arizona fans with live television coverage of their initial USFL campaign.

KPNX-TV, Channel 12 in Phoenix, will be televising live all road games in Season #1, with the exception of those games being aired on ABC-TV or ESPN, the national cable network.

In addition to coverage of the club's road games in 1983, KPNX will air on a tape-delay basis the Wranglers' home games at Sun Devil Stadium.

As the Wranglers' 1983 Media Guide went to press, on-air talent had yet to be announced.
